what is

Dignity

Campaign ?

Dignity Campaign is a christian organization based in Cape Town whose vision is to help girls, women and boys to find their identity, belonging, and purpose in God. Also help girls and women to better know how their body works from puberty to the management of their menstrual cycle.

It's a 12 weeks program. We ended the first with the first group of girls.

Thank you Lord for this first step!
Sanda and Carine will continue with these young girls who have just completed the Dignity Campaign program. The aim is to train them as facilitators so that they can have other groups of girls in turn and follow-up them in each session, make them disciples and encourage them to enter into God's plan for each of them. They will continue the program with another group of girls; the goal is always to see a change in their lives and multiplication.
